OVERVIEW

The Indian Institutes of Technology are engineering and management institutes whose alumni have proved to be strong innovators and highly successful executives and technologists. Over 200,000 alumni are located worldwide with over 50,000 alumni in the United States.

The IIT Global Conference is held every year with every alternate year being held in a city in the United States. Previous conferences have been held in San Jose, Washington D.C., Santa Clara, Chicago, and New York City. This 2013 conference has been awarded to Houston. The theme of the 2013 conference is “Inspiring Innovation for Tomorrow”.

The conference brings together IIT alumni and others from the community to listen to recognized industry leaders solving the world’s challenges. The conference also allows the participants to network with peers, and the IIT alumni and their families to be entertained.

IIT alumni have proved to be highly successful in the corporate world, entrepreneurial ventures, academia, and in almost every walk of life. Some examples include:

- The Current Head of the National Science Foundation (NSF)
- The Current Dean of the Harvard Business School
- The new President of Carnegie Mellon University
- The Past Dean of the MIT School of Engineering
- The Current President of the University of California at San Diego
- The Co-Founder of Sun Microsystems
- The Former Senior Vice Chairman of Citigroup
- The Former CEO and Chairman of The Hartford
- The Former Chairman and Managing Director of McKinsey & Co.
- The Former CEO and President of Rolm and Haas
- The Former President of Chevron Global Manufacturing
- The EVP Technology and EVP Operations at Schlumberger
- The Chief Business Officer, SVP Engineering, and SVP Chrome & Apps at Google
- The Former CTO of Halliburton, and the current CTOs of BP and Cisco Systems

It has been estimated that over 20% of Silicon Valley technology companies were founded by IIT alumni.

This document provides an overview of the program agenda from past conferences held:

- IIT 2011 – New York City, NY
- IIT 2009 – Chicago, IL
- IIT 2007 – Santa Clara, CA
- IIT 2005 – Washington D.C.
- IIT 2003 – San Jose, CA
